SOCIAL and PERSONAL

ONE of the most attractive social events of the season, the dance given Friday night in assembly hall from 8 to 12 o'clock in honor of Miss Helen Hilmyer, of Franklin, Pa., who is the guest of Mrs. T. M. Ramsdell.

The couples present were Miss Helen Hilmyer, with Mr. Cabell W. Raby; Miss Louise Ramsdell, with Mr. Lewis Henderson; Miss Clara Long, with Mr. James Satterwhite; Miss Nellie Snyder, with Mr. Thomas Ramsdell, Jr.; Miss Gladys Martenstein, with Mr. Darden; Miss Mary Williams, with Mr. Cray Tyree; Miss Helen Rose, with Mr. Buford Rose; Miss Louise Seay, with Virginia Croxson; Miss Lettie Duncan, with Mr. Chas. Chas. Seay; Miss Gladys Hodge, with William Raby. Others present were Miss Anna Pond, Miss Spence Loughran, of New York; Miss Ruth Farrow, Mr. Percy Stone.

The guests, by Miss Louise Ramsdell, with Mr. Cabell W. Raby, White Sulphur Springs.

Social life at White Sulphur Springs has been very gay during the past week.

On Thursday evening last, the Misses Briscoe, of Knoxville, Tenn., gave a supper party to a number of young people, the married contingent, with the exception of the agreeable chapter of Misses Cornick, being altogether omitted.

Guests, including Misses Louise Adams, Mattie Sue Philmy, Allene Stokes, Charlotte Briscoe, Bolling Philmy, Rose Briscoe, Emma Clark and Mrs. Cornick, Miss D. A. Carroll, D. A. Carroll, Misses Walter Houston Henderson, Samuel Venable, Dr. Ben C. Moorman and Messrs. Buskie, Hughes and Browning, were seated at two tables decorated with white and pink ribbons artistically tied to the candles, the ribbon matching with the candle and electric light shades, and with the gowns worn by the young hostesses, thus carrying out a beautiful color scheme.

The cleverness evinced by the Misses Briscoe in the selection and seating of their guests, and the many bright speeches by the participants, characterized the entertainment as one of the most brilliant in a long list of elegant affairs that have rendered this season famous at the White.

Dr. Moorman Host.
Dr. Ben C. Moorman, of Roanoke, gave a supper at the White on the evening of August 24th.

The ladies present were Misses McAdams, of Richmond, and Misses Charlotte and Rose Briscoe, of Knoxville, Tenn.; the gentlemen, Messrs. Henderson, of New York; Carroll, of Baltimore; Sams, of Norfolk, and Dr. Moorman.

Won Silver Cup.
Mrs. Julian Morris, sister of Mr. C. C. Walker, of Richmond, was successful at the recent upper tier of the Morris silver cup given by the Morris Club, of Baltimore.

The Morris stables, indeed, almost broke the record. Their horses were entered in nine classes, and captured eight trophies, ninth having a second honor awarded.

Kelsey—Bumley.
The wedding of Miss Louise Williams Brumley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dahlgren Brumley, of Freemason Street, Norfolk, to Mr. Denham Arthur Oswald Kelsey will be celebrated on the afternoon of September 2d, in the home of the bride's parents, the Rev. Joseph Rennie, D. D., of the First Presbyterian Church, Norfolk, officiating.

Miss Marian Simmons, of Norfolk, will be maid of honor, and Mr. Henry Bowman, of Norfolk, the best man. Other attendants will include Messrs. Chauncey Colwell, of Philadelphia; Harry Woodson Chapman and Samuel M. Stubbs, of Norfolk, and Mr. Charles Stratton Brumley, of St. Augustine, Fla., brother of the bride.

Mr. and Mrs. Kelsey will spend their honeymoon North, and occupy apartments at the Merrimac, Norfolk, after October 10th.

Social Affairs at Black Rock.
Despite the rain and cool weather, Black Rock Springs still keeps up a round of gaiety by the young men of cottage No. 12 on Thursday night was one of the most enjoyable of the season. The german figures were led by Mr. John Patterson and Miss Nancy Galloway.

Messrs. William Kemper, of Washington, D. C.; Emmett Barger, of Augusta county, and J. Fendall Garth, of Albemarle county, will be week-end guests at cottage No. 12.

Mr. Terrell, of Charlottesville, is the guest of Miss Ida Fretwell.

Mr. Lester Eppard, of Washington, D. C., was a recent visitor at cottage No. 12.

Mrs. Margaret Kemper delighted her friends by opening her cottage on Upper Row. She has as her guest Miss Mattie Young.

Mr. Roy Borden and sister, Miss Mary, have left for New Hope, Va.

Mrs. John A. Anderson, of Harrison, who has been with her sons in the Mayo Cottage, has gone to her home.

Among the recent guests registered at the hotel are Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Jones, Mr. Carroll Kerr, of Richmond; Mr. and Mrs. A. Price and daughter, Elizabeth Price, of Roanoke, Va.; Misses Garth and Garnett, and Mrs. Sells Stockton, of Charlottesville; Mrs. Lewis, of New Orleans, La.; Mrs. Wisner and children, of Memphis, Tenn.; Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Anderson, and Miss Myrtle Anderson, Misses Florence Baylor, Margaret Baylor, Helen Baylor, and Mrs. Zerkle, of Staunton, and Mr. and Mrs. Cullen, of Baltimore, Md.

Personal Mention.
Mrs. Harriet French and two daughters, Miss Mattie French and Mrs. W. B. Hamilton, of No. 1020 West Main Street, have returned home after a stay of five weeks at Mount Elliott Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Epps and little daughter, Virginia Elizabeth, were guests of Richmond relatives last week on their way from Suffolk to Bass City.

Misses Eunice and Dorothea Hartung, of No. 312 East Grace Street, have returned after spending two weeks at Maple Shade Inn, Pulaski.

Mrs. William H. Glascock, who has been suffering with a broken arm, is convalescing in her home, at Burkeville, as her Richmond and Virginia friends will be glad to know.

Miss Mabel Hopkins and sister are at home after being the guests of Mrs. John Minor, at Bacon, Va.

Captain Sally Thompson is spending some time with friends at Woodstock, Gloucester county.

Mrs. Grace B. Siegel and daughter are visiting Mrs. Robert Lee Sears, of Matthews.

Mr. Arthur Strasser is the guest of the Misses Hodges, at Pace's, Va.

Mrs. T. C. Edwards is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Richardson, of Providence Forge.

Misses Mamie Durbin and Lily Mitchell have returned from a Northern and Canadian trip which included a visit to Atlantic City.

CHURCH OF ROME HOLDS HELEN MALONEY BOUND

NEW YORK, August 30.—Only death would make Arthur Herbert Osborne of Helen Maloney free to contract another marriage without excommunication from the Church of Rome. Their marriage will not be annulled by the Pope and the College of Cardinals. The case has been passed upon by the highest ecclesiastical authority in the world, and the decision is final.

A reconciliation between Mr. Osborne and his wife is now in progress. The Church of Rome, however, following the State in validating the first marriage contract, it does not follow the State in the dissolution of the sacrament.

There is no divorce in the Church of Rome. A marriage is either annulled or it remains a marriage. Legal separation is admitted by the church, but this does not leave either party free to contract another marriage.

It was definitely ascertained on yesterday that the Church of Rome, through the hands of Maloney's case has passed, that, according to the laws of the church, there is absolutely no ground for annulment. There is the highest ecclesiastical authority for the foregoing statement.

Rules of the Catholic Church.
These are the causes for which annulment may be obtained:

That one of the contracting parties be not of sound mind.

That fraud and deception as to the identity of either party be practiced in order to consummate the marriage.

That one of the contracting parties be forced by violence into the contracting of such a contract.

That for physical reasons it be impossible to consummate the marriage.

That a previous vow of consecration to a religious life be broken by the contracting parties.

That the marriage be contracted under the age limit.

That a previous marriage be proved.

That one of the contracting parties should have been "unbaptized," that is, not a baptized member of any Christian church.

Marriage Was Not a Joke.
Helen Maloney cannot advance any one of these defenses. That the marriage was not contracted as "a joke" has been said, has been proved to the satisfaction of the church by the fact that Helen Maloney and Arthur Osborne, being Catholics, sought a Catholic priest to perform their ceremony. Had this unfortunate venture been the result of a jesting hour, Mr. Osborne and his wife would not have applied to Father Cornelius Fitzsimmons, now at Port Jervis, N. Y., for a license to marry.

Miss Marie Flagg, of North Plum Street, will be guest of her brother, Dr. W. H. Flagg, at her home.

Dr. W. H. Flagg has returned to the city after spending a week with relatives in Essex county.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Ligon, who have been guests in Richmond of Mr. Ligon's sister, Mrs. J. H. Harbeck, of 463 1-2 East Marshall Street, have returned to their home in Shelby, N. C.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Wise returned Saturday from Rockbridge Alum Springs, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Spooner, of Portsmouth.

Mrs. W. T. Cox, who was painfully hurt by a fall last Monday, is improving.

Mrs. Maurice Smith and Miss Marian Smith are spending some time in Canada.

Miss Helen Lathrop is the guest of Miss Elizabeth Hotchkiss at the summer home of the latter, near the University of Virginia.

Mrs. Frank Nalle and Miss Nalle, of Somerset, Orange county, are at 115 East Franklin Street.

Dr. John Winn and little son are taking an extended trip by way of Niagara and the St. Lawrence to Thousand Islands.

Mrs. W. B. Forbes and her daughter, Mrs. Elmo D. Hotchkiss, Jr., are spending some weeks in the Maine woods and mountains.

Sussex Society.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
SUSSEX, VA., August 30.—There was a delightful dance given at the home of Mrs. W. F. Hunnicutt last Friday evening by Messrs. Jack Morgan and Thornton Hunnicutt. Harrison's String Band, of Petersburg, made the music, and dancing was kept up until dawn Saturday morning. Refreshments were served abundantly, and everybody had a good time.

Miss Virginia Hamilton, of Newport News, is visiting her sister, Mrs. L. P. Hargrave, Jr., of Booker.

Mr. Hancock Hamilton, who has been spending his vacation with his sister, Mrs. Hargrave, left for Newport News yesterday.

Miss Etta Godsey, of Richmond, is also visiting Mrs. Hargrave.

Mr. P. W. Jones and Mr. George M. Cobb, of Richmond, are visiting friends in Norfolk.

Misses Katherine and Virginia Grizzard, of Grizzard, Va., are visiting Miss Elsie Wrenn.

Mr. R. B. Hartley, who has been on a trip to Europe for the past few months, has returned.

Approaching Marriage.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
CLUSTER SPRINGS, HALIFAX COUNTY, VA., August 30.—Mr. and Mrs. Daniel W. Owen announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Sue Watkins, to Professor William Oscar Ryburn, of Prince Edward county.

The wedding will take place at noon, September 3d, at "Hyco Heights," the country home of the bride's parents, in Southern Pines.

After a brief tour North Professor and Mrs. Ryburn will go to Decatur, Ga., where they will reside, the groom, who is an M. A. of the University of Virginia, having lately been elected to the chair of English history in the college at that place.

"I am not afraid of soap. I have never found that it injured my skin. I wash my face with Ivory Soap and hot water every night and morning. At night I apply cold cream, rubbing it well into my face and neck and leaving it on over night. In this way, it is absorbed into the skin."

This is the method of caring for her complexion which is followed by "Iowa's most beautiful woman."
